SEVERE FIGHTING.

The Russians Attacked the Enemy on the West Shore of Liaoti Promontory.

LOSS ON BOTH SIDES WAS HEAVY

Apparently They Attempted to Capture the Heavy Guns the Japs Mounted Near Pigeon Bay.

Russian Ships Were Silent and Hitherto Unused Merchant Ships Were as a Result of the Fight Turned into Hospitals.

Che Foo, Oct. 3.—Severe fighting, the Russians being the aggressors, occurred September 28 and 29 on the west shore of Liaoti promontory near Pigeon bay, according to a report brought by Chinese who left Port Arthur September 30. The Russians already apparently are aiming to capture the heavy guns which the Japanese have mounted in that vicinity. The Russians were in considerable force and they made several sorties, dragging field artillery with them. They were unsuccessful, however. Three junks with 160 coolies arrived here Sunday. They left Port Arthur because they were forced to carry the wounded and bury the dead. They also were afraid that eventually they would have no food, although rice is plentiful now, according to their stories. They further say that the Russians lost heavily during the attacks of September 19 and September 23, but the Japanese loss was much heavier.

The Russian ships were silent during the battle and the hitherto unused merchant ships were, as a result of the fight, turned into hospitals.

Several of the Chinese who were employed in carrying dead say that the dead were so numerous that they were unable to form anything like an estimate of the number who fell in attacking and defending the supplementary forts near Izu mountain. Since the battle both sides continue to shell at intervals daily. The Russians make many small sorties against the Japanese trenches. Small positions frequently change hands. The Chinese say they were compelled to bury the dead by stealth at night for the reason that the Japanese would fire on them.

Tokio, Oct. 3.—The Russians are reported to be desperately endeavoring to retake their lost positions, including Fort Kuropatkin, in the hope of restoring the water supply of Port Arthur. They are said to have repeatedly assaulted the Japanese after shelling from neighboring forts and batteries. The Japanese continue to hold the positions. Both sides are said to have suffered severely. The newly mounted heavy Japanese guns are said to command the entire harbor. The position of the remnant of the Russian Port Arthur fleet is said to be precarious and it is believed the vessels must soon emerge or be destroyed.

Advices from Manchuria are to the effect that the Japanese and Russian outposts and scouts continue in close contact south, southeast and east of Mukden. Skirmishes are occurring daily and an aggressive general action is expected soon.

It is believed that the general engagement will take place near The Pass and that Gen. Kuropatkin is holding Mukden and positions along the Hun river merely to temporarily check the Japanese advance.

THE IRON HAND OF THE WORLD.

A New Society Organized That Will Be National in Its Scope.

Bedford, Ind., Oct. 3.—For the purpose of securing legislation providing for the death penalty for criminal assault, a number of Bedford citizens, headed by Elphalet L. Pearson, have organized a society to be known as "The Iron Hand of the World." It is the intention of the promoters to make the organization national in scope. Temporary headquarters have been established in Bedford.

Retired From the Track.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 3.—H. K. Deveroux, owner and driver of the trotting horse John A. McKerron (2:04½) announced Sunday night that because of what probably is an incurable splint on McKerron's left foreleg that he has permanently retired the horse from any further contests on the track.

Looking For Train Robbers.

Pittsburg, Oct. 3.—The last train from Newcastle, Pa., to Pittsburg over the P. & L. E. railroad Sunday night was preceded to this city by a special engine carrying a posse of officers on the lookout for train robbers, but without success.

JOE JEFFERSON QUILTS.

After 70 Years the Veteran Actor Renounces the Stage.

New York, Oct. 3.—Joseph Jefferson, after more than 70 years on the stage, during which time he has become one of the most honored and beloved members of the dramatic profession, has decided absolutely never to resume his theatrical career.

Deepest regret was expressed by all who heard him make the announcement. Mr. Jefferson arrived here from Boston, where he had rested a few days, recuperating from his recent illness at Buzzard's Bay, which caused the abandonment of his fall tour.

He is convalescent, but still must be judicious in guarding his returning strength, and will remain here three weeks, after which he will go by easy stages to Florida, stopping in Washington for a time and again in Atlanta.

A MYSTERIOUS CASE.

Body of a Richly Dressed Young Woman Found in the Allegheny River.

Pittsburg, Oct. 3.—The local police are wrestling with what appears to be a mysterious murder case. The body of a young woman, richly apparelled in silks, laces and velvets, was found in the Allegheny river Sunday, a short distance below Union bridge. The body, which had evidently been in the water but a few hours, bore three wounds on the forehead such as might have been made by a blunt instrument, and several small cuts, evidently made by a razor.

The dead woman was apparently about 25 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches in height and weighed about 130 pounds. On her fingers were rings containing two rubies and ten pearls. Silvermen who occupied boat houses near where the body was found report having heard two men on the wharf talking in excited tones about 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

A STREET CAR ACCIDENT.

One Person Killed, One Fatally and 13 Seriously Injured.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Frederick Fendsen, a bartender, was killed; Sergt. Harry Curren, of the Thirtieth United States Infantry, fatally injured, and 13 other persons severely injured in a street car accident in the Richmond district Sunday night. A big electric car of the Eddy street line was coming in from the park and chutes crowded to its utmost capacity, many standing on the platforms. In coming down a grade the brakes of the car refused to work and the car acquired fearful momentum. Just as a curve was reached the motorman succeeded in throwing on all the brakes and the car came to a stop with such suddenness that a large number of persons were thrown off.

CRAZED FROM FEVER.

Four Men and a Woman Killed By Charles Gettrell.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 3.—A report from O'Brien's Landing, Mo., says that four men and a Negro woman were killed there by Charles Gettrell, a Memphisian, employed as a clerk in a commissary store at that place. Gettrell, it is said, was mad from fever and he rushed from his bed into the street in his night robe, having obtained possession of a gun. He later escaped into the woods. A sheriff and posse are in pursuit.

White Man Lynched.

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 3.—John Mernson, the white man who killed Will T. Floyd at Kershaw, was taken from the jail by a mob and escorted outside the town limits, where he was hanged to a tree. Two shots were fired into his body as he swung off.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 3.—The democratic state campaign will be formally opened Monday in Kentucky. Preparations have been made for rousing meetings to be held all over the state.

PAYNE'S ILLNESS.

After Several Sinking Spells Sunday His Condition is Decidedly More Encouraging.

STRONG RECUPERATIVE POWERS.

The Postmaster General Has Regained Complete Consciousness and Recognizes Those About Him.

He Asked For Food and When Milk Was Brought to Him He Drank From the Glass He Himself Held.

Washington, Oct. 3.—After a day filled with strong hopes, alternating with the gravest fears of almost immediate dissolution, Postmaster General Payne's condition late Sunday night was declared by his physicians to be decidedly more encouraging, but they are unwilling to hazard an opinion as to the future. In the early hours his heart action became decidedly weaker with resultant feebleness of pulse and unconsciousness. At times he suffered intense pain and once or twice he cried out in his agony. These paroxysms were followed by periods of exhaustion with brief intervals of comparative freedom from pain, but the heart action continued to give the physicians the greatest concern.

Several times during the day the pulse became so feeble that it seemed it must cease altogether and at one time the physicians said the postmaster general was as near death as few ever get and survive the day. At 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon the doctors fully believed that the end was at hand, and the family, who were at dinner, were summoned. By Mrs. Payne's direction Rev. Dr. Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, where the family worship, was sent for and on his arrival those at the stricken man's bedside joined in prayer. But again his marvelous recuperative powers asserted themselves and won another victory.

Slowly but very perceptibly a change for the better took place and at 4:30 o'clock a more hopeful bulletin was issued. This was followed at 6:45 o'clock by far the best news of the day. Miss Jones, a niece of Mrs. Payne, came from the sick room and with beaming face told of a wonderful change for the better. Some time before that hour, she said, the postmaster general had regained complete consciousness; had recognized those about him and seemed almost like himself again. He had even asked for food and milk and when the latter was brought he drank a glass he himself held. One of the physicians said the improvement was almost miraculous.

Early Monday morning Dr. Magruder left the sick room for his home, leaving Dr. Grayson in charge. Dr. Magruder's report was that Mr. Payne's improvement continued and if this rate of improvement continues the next bulletin would doubtless be gratifying. He said that the postmaster general was retaining his nourishment and had had no sinking spells during the evening when he awoke from his sleep, which was necessarily fitful, he was able to recognize those about him. Dr. Magruder added that Mr. Payne's heart action continued good.

CAMPAIGN BUTTONS.

A Blunder Caused Democratic Committee to Issue a Double Set.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—A blunder has caused the democratic national committee to issue a double set of campaign buttons. A large number of the buttons were delivered at headquarters recently, when the managers were startled to find the lineaments of Parker and Davis, both done in a hectic pink, starting from a background of gold.

Thousands of buttons had been expressed to western states by the time the discovery was made, and a fear that the Bryanites might take umbrage led the leaders to place an order for a smaller button with Parker and Davis ensconced in an environment of silver. These were sent to Nebraska and other western states, while the gold faced buttons were recalled and distributed elsewhere.

Monongahela, Pa., Oct. 3.—Hon. George V. Lawrence is dead, aged 89. He served many terms in the state legislature and three terms in congress and was one of the most popular men in the state.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 3.—Jesse W. Crosby, a Mormon, has filed with the secretary of state his withdrawal as nominee for presidential elector on the republican ticket. Objection had been made to his candidacy.

THE BLUE LAW.

Lexington Experienced Its First Sunday Under Its Regime.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 3.—Lexington Sunday experienced its first Sunday under the blue law regime but the restrictions were greater Sunday than they will ever be again, for late Sunday afternoon the city solicitor discovered that milk wagons and ice wagons are a "necessity" and are thus exempted by the law. Only a few milk wagons attempted to run Sunday morning and the drivers were arrested. Most of the population drank their coffee without cream. Families whose sick children were deprived of milk complained bitterly and suits for damages may follow. Ice wagons did not attempt to run. Late in the afternoon the city solicitor decided that both have a right to run and the drivers under arrest were released. Only about 30 people were arrested for violating the Sunday law, although about 200 had announced their intention Saturday of continuing business. They decided when they started to open and saw the police, they had better keep closed.

Drug stores had a right to sell medicine on prescription, but this did not pay to keep clerks, and all drug stores were closed. The only places open were hotels, livery stables and newspaper offices, the latter two classes having secured injunctions.

No time had been given the citizens to prepare for the strict enforcement of the Sunday laws, and many families had not laid in groceries and meats. Preparations will be made hereafter. Few pastors spoke of the Sunday enforcement Sunday and urged the members of their congregations to lay in sufficient supplies on Saturday. The saloon men believe the Sunday enforcement will soon become unpopular and they will be allowed to open. No saloons were open Sunday. They reported a record breaking sale of bottled goods Saturday night. Few drinks were registered Sunday.

Ex-Alderman C. B. Lowry Sunday night announced his intention of filing a $10,000 damage suit against those responsible for stopping milk wagons. Lowry has two sick children who subsist mainly on milk, and his wagon failed to arrive Sunday morning. He called at the milk depot and was unable to purchase milk, as the managers of the depot had been arrested once for a violation of the law. Lowry says he will invite all families whose sick children suffered to join him in his suit and he will pay the attorney fees. Other suits are threatened.

Two Tragedies at Paducah.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 3.—Thomas Riley was fatally assaulted and robbed but could not give an account of it after reviving. About the same time Tom Murray, special watchman for the Illinois Central, shot and dangerously wounded Joe Green, his friend. Green was trying to get Murray to go home.

Maj. H. B. McClellan Dead.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 3.—Maj. H. B. McClellan, one of the most noted educators in this state, and who recently resigned the principalship of Sayre Institute, after holding the office for nearly half a century, died at his home in this city as a result of a stroke of apoplexy.

Kentucky Daughters Elect Officers.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 3.—The Kentucky Daughters of the American Revolution elected Mrs. S. H. Todd, of Owensboro, state regent; Mrs. William Warren, of Danville, vice regent, and Miss Jennie D. Blackburn, of Bowling Green, secretary.

Fire in Middlesboro.

Middlesboro, Ky., Oct. 3.—Fire broke out in a new frame building here and for a time it seemed that the town was doomed. The stores of A. Goodfriend and H. Stophinske were destroyed, with contents, with a loss upward of $25,000.

Hunter Is Busy.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 3.—William R. Ramsey, Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter's attorney, arrived in Louisville and held a long conference with the Eleventh district congressman. Dr. Hunter's plans for a contest was discussed.

William O. Vaughan Indicted.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 3.—The grand jury Saturday afternoon indicted William O. Vaughan for involuntary manslaughter, for the killing of R. J. Suter, a member of the board of public safety, July 3.

A Roadside Wedding.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 3.—Mr. Troy Adams, aged 22, of Colly, and Miss Lydia Kinser, aged 22, after procuring a marriage license, were married by David Adams, a minister, on the roadside near here.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 3.—Jones' well, No. 14, came in last week in the Beaver creek oil field, north of here, on the Knott-Letcher border, with a 300-barrel flow, the best well struck there in months.

RIO GRANDE FLOOD.

Indications Are That the Bed of the River Has Changed to the Arroyo Colorado.

WAS ITS ORIGINAL BED YEARS AGO

In That Event Brownsville, Tex., Would Be Cut Off From River, Decreasing Property Values.

Half the Town of Watrous, N. M., Destroyed By a Flood and at Least a Dozen Persons Drowned—Many Narrow Escapes.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 3.—From all indications now at hand from recent reports received from the overflowed country in the Brownsville section, it appears that there is a strong probability that the bed of the Rio Grande will be shown when the waters have receded to be occupying the bed of the Arroyo Colorado, which years ago was its original bed. Should this be true the people of this region of Texas who would be bereft of the river would suffer greatly. The city of Brownsville, one of the rapidly growing towns of the state, would be cut off from the river, the miles of irrigation ditches and canals dug would be rendered worthless and property values dependent upon the Rio Grande's flow will be materially cut down. This would apply to considerable area, being the land below the Arroyo into which the river is running 12 miles above Brownsville.

The national title to this property is not in question. About seven years ago a joint commission appointed by the respective governments of the United States and Mexico owing to the troublesome habit of the river changing its course hit upon a compromise boundary and two years ago marked it with monuments. The boundary rests where they stand, however the river may shift about.

Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 3.—Half the town of Watrous was destroyed by the flood and at least 12 persons were drowned. Among these were the three children of J. A. Stevens, Felix Villaret, his wife, two sisters and several children and O. F. Porter. J. E. Stevens and his wife escaped and have been brought here. They are in a critical condition. Many persons were rescued from trees and house-tops. The greatest damage was around the junction of Mora and Sapello creeks. The rock crusher, the great iron bridge and much track at Watrous were washed away. The Gallinas river formed a new channel here. In the Gallinas canyon the dams of the Agua Pura Co. broke, bringing a terrific flood on the city. The Montezuma Hot Springs track went out in many places. Half a dozen bridges were destroyed and the Montezuma bath houses were partly carried away. For two blocks on Bridge street every business house was flooded.

A FLOOR COLLAPSED.

About 150 Persons Were Precipitated Into the Basement and Many Hurt.

Adams, Mass., Oct. 3.—While Rt. Rev. Thomas D. Peavon, Roman Catholic bishop, of Springfield, was laying the cornerstone of St. Stanislaus Polish church here Sunday afternoon a floor collapsed, precipitating 150 persons into the basement. Thirty-seven persons were so injured as to require medical treatment. Of this number the injuries of 16 are serious and in one case may prove fatal. The others sustained minor cuts and bruises. Bishop Beaven and several of the priests assisting him were slightly hurt.

IN A CORNFIELD.

Dead Body of Mrs. Nick Lambdin Found Near Her Home.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 3.—The dead body of Mrs. Nick Lambdin has been found in a cornfield near her home, some eight miles east of Jellico, Tenn. It is supposed that she had been dead since last Tuesday. The flesh had been eaten from one hand and her face. Poul play is suspected as she was known to have considerable money. No arrested have yet been made.

Three Men Killed in a Wreck.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 3.—A special from Dickinson, N. D., says: Three men were killed and a number injured in the wreck of a stock train near Bismarck. The dead: Smyth Dobson, of Dickinson; George Davis, home supposed to be Saginaw, Mich; Fred Voipert, of Montana.

Monongahela, Pa., Oct. 3.—While crossing the Monongahela river in a skiff, four miners were run down by the steamer Beauty, pushing empty barges, and were drowned.

EVENING BULLETIN. DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY. ROSSER & MCCARTHY, Proprietors. MONDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1904.

Weather Forecast.

Fair to-night and Tuesday; warmer in central and eastern portions.

The Democrats of Kentucky must not be misled by the failure of the Republicans to make a brass band campaign. Following the example of Godfrey Hunter, who led them to one of the few victories they have gained in this State, they are making a gum shoe fight all along the line. In every Congressional district where the vote is close they are trying to make a combination with the Populists, and where that is not possible they are bringing out Populist candidates in the hope of withdrawing enough votes from the Democrats to elect the Republican nominee.

The hand of Campaign Chairman George W. Long, which has been extended in the direction of Government employees over Kentucky to receive funds to aid the national ticket of the Republican party, is being felt all over the State. Officials and employees of the Frankfort postoffice have just been "urged" to put up for the party welfare. The assessment made is $45 per man of the minor employees, the better salaried ones in proportion. The letter of the campaign chairman is couched in the same "persuasive" language he has used in addressing the federal officials at other points.

The negro vote is being sought with diligence by the Republican campaign managers. Several conferences have been held recently at Louisville to discuss the question of getting the negroes to the polls on election day. A plan has been proposed, and, it is said, will be adopted by the Republicans to have their workers at the polls collect from each negro as he registers the certificate which entitles him to vote. These certificates will be guarded until election day and the precinct captains will be provided with the certificates and a large sum of money. As each negro comes for his certificate he will be given the price decided on to vote the straight Republican ticket. Where the negroes do not show up to vote their own certificates, repeaters will be used and furnished with certificates to go to the polls and vote them. By this scheme it is expected to get a big majority of the negroes voted, provided they can be induced to register.

JUDGE PUGH'S DECLINATION.

The fact that Hon. Samuel J. Pugh has declined to accept the Republican nomination for Congress in this district is not surprising to those who are familiar with the political situation in the district.

Mr. Pugh is the only Republican who has been elected in this district within the past sixteen years, which fact attests his personal popularity. His intimate knowledge of the district, his ability as an organizer, and the array of federal office-holders, all of whom were appointed upon his recommendation and are active in his interests—all these make him the best equipped man in his party to speedily form an opinion as to the prospects of electing a Republican successor to Mr. Kehoe.

His refusal to accept the nomination means that after a careful study of the situation and consultation with the shrewdest politicians in the party he has concluded that Mr. Kehoe can not be defeated. This condition exists as a result of the faithful and beneficial service Mr. Kehoe has rendered his constituency without regard to party lines.

From the mouth of Sandy to the Bracken line the business interests of the district have felt the stimulation resulting from appropriations received by his efforts, while in almost every village in the district some needy and deserving old soldier has had his pension increased as a result of his painstaking care in placing their claims before the department. In fact there is no interest of his whole constituency that Mr. Kehoe has not guarded and served with unabated zeal.

With such a situation demanding a victim for the slaughter, it is natural that Mr. Pugh is willing that another should be the victim.

This is a hopeless fight for our friends the enemy, and instead of permitting some well-meaning but gullible victim to fall through the political death-trap which Mr. Pugh was shrewd enough to escape, it would be the decent thing for the Republicans to reward Mr. Kehoe's faithful service by declining to give him opposition.

Do the smart thing, boys, and save your powder for another fight.

JUDGE PUGH DECLINES.

Observes the Handwriting On the Wall and Refuses to Accept the Republican Nomination For Congress in This District.

It's all off!

The Democrats of the Ninth district won't have any fun with Judge Pugh this fall.

The Lewis County Republican candidate for Congress has had time to think it over and refuses to sacrifice himself to the wishes of the federal office-holding crowd.

There was a committee caucus meeting held at the Central Hotel here Saturday which was attended by Mr. Pugh and other leading Republicans of the district.

The Judge's candidacy was discussed pro and con, and it is understood some of Mr. Pugh's enemies expressed their disapproval of the Cynthiana convention's action so emphatically that even his warmest supporters observed the "handwriting on the wall," and it was decided that he should decline the nomination and county conventions be held Friday to select delegates to attend a district convention to be held in Maysville next Saturday, when an attempt will be made to nominate a man more acceptable to all factions.

We understand the Judge will appear in print to-day and over his own signature explain his reason for refusing the nomination.

REGISTER EARLY.

Every Democratic Voter in Maysville is Urged Not to Wait Until it is Too Late.

To-morrow is registration day and it is urged that every Democratic voter in Maysville register. Otherwise he will not be permitted to vote at the Presidential election, and will not be allowed to participate in party caucuses between election day and registration day of next year.

The registration booths will remain open from 6 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night, and every voter will be given an opportunity to register.

It is urged that the voters register as early in the morning as possible, to keep from crowding in the afternoon and evening so that no one will be left in line waiting and disappointed when the registration closes at 9 o'clock.

Registration certificates will be issued this year for the first time. Every voter as he registers will be given a certificate which he is required to return when casting his vote in November.

Mr. Evan S. Brooks, who was born in this county June 14, 1833, died at Columbus, Mo., August 13th. His death was the result of a second stroke of paralysis. The funeral services were held August 15th, in the Christian Church at Mexico, Mo., and by his request the body was laid to rest by those of his father and mother in the Mexico Cemetery. Deceased once taught school at Flemingsburg, and for four years was tobacco inspector at St. Louis under Governor Stone.

PERSONAL.

—Master Geo. Disher of Tangletown was in town Friday.

—Mrs. Jacob Cablish spent Sunday with her son in Cincinnati.

—Jesse Galbraith of Cincinnati, O., was the guest of Earl Dora Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Barbour Russell have returned from their bridal trip.

—Mrs. Dan Daily and two little daughters are visiting relatives in Covington.

—Mr. E. A. Robinson left Sunday afternoon to visit his brother in Wichita, Kansas.

—Mr. Harry Owens left Sunday to join his wife and others of a party who go to the World's Fair.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Poyntz are at home after a visit to Covington and various other points.

—Mrs. Wm. Hancock of Bellevue, who has been visiting Mrs. Louisa Haley, returned home Sunday.

—Mrs. Mary Eaton and children of Cambridge City, Ind., are visiting her sister, Mrs. T. K. Proctor, Sr.

—Mr. Emory McDowell arrived home Saturday from Point Pleasant, W. Va., where he has been for several months past.

—Judge L. W. Robertson and wife arrived home Saturday evening after spending the summer in Bethlehem, New Hampshire.

—Mr. Edward McNamara, who was here to attend the funeral of his aunt, Miss Jane Breen, left for his home in Williamstown, W. Va., Sunday afternoon.

—Mrs. R. L. Tudor and daughter Beatie, of Buffalo, N. Y., who have been visiting friends here left Friday for Cincinnati, where they will spend a few days before returning home.

Among other things he will say he was not present at the convention and at no time desired the nomination, nor had he anticipated the action of the convention, and did not learn of the effort of his friends there in time to prevent his name from being placed before the delegates; that he tried to reach them by wire, but was unsuccessful, intending to have his name withdrawn. He still claims he had never said to any one that he would accept the nomination had it been tendered him by acclamation, but thinks if the convention had ratified the action of the majority by a unanimous vote he would have felt bound to accept.

The Judge will say that he has received assurances of cordial support from those who voted for another candidate, but the effect of their acts might hinder and embarrass his candidacy, or at least require him to make defensive explanations as to his right to represent the party; that he never sought the nomination and has no one to blame for favoring another, and he never dreamed of it coming to him in the manner it did.

For these reasons and for other considerations explained to the committee, the Hon. Samuel J. Pugh of the "State of Lewis" respectfully declines to be snowed under by Congressman Kehoe at the November election.

Dissolution Sale

We will offer for sale, privately, a farm of 170 acres, more or less, of fine

Mason County Land,

situated two and one-half miles south of Washington on the Lexington pike. The place is well watered, is under good fence and in a high state of cultivation. Forty acres to be sown in wheat this fall, the balance is in grass. There is a good tenement house and a large tobacco barn on the place. Call on PARRY BROS., Washington, Ky., or address them R. R. No. 2, Maysville Ky.

Apple vinegar—Calhoun's.

The Bee Hive

The Fall Season is on; We Are Ready.

Like Oyama, when reading his telegram, we are "glad" to report that we are the only store in Maysville selling Cloaks Suits, etc., not showing a full line of last year's carried over styles. We are the only store in Maysville that went to New York for our goods and our Mr. Merz spent three weeks with the best Cloak Suit, Skirt and Fur houses in New York. We are prepared for the largest business this house has ever done and we feel with the prosperity of this year we shall not be disappointed. It is our proud boast that no woman ever came to this store with the intention of honestly comparing our Cloaks Suits or Skirts with others and left it without purchasing.

At your service—Miss Ellen Comer, Miss Alice Clooney, Miss Lottie Rosser, Miss Kate O'Brien, Miss Lizzie Rains, Miss Katharine Swartz, Miss Margaret McAniff, Miss Mamie Archdeacon, Miss Louellen Driscoll, Miss Nettie Smith, Miss Daisy Chisholm, Miss Amy Kain, Miss Nellie Haffey, Mr. Frank Ellis, Mr. C. W. Darnall, Mr. George Clephane, Mr. Pat Sweeney, Mr. Charles Carnahan, Mr. Chris. T. Brown, Mr. New York Representative, Mr. Philadelphia Representative, Frank Brady and We Three Boys.

MERZ BROS.

Charley Onthespot

Is a wise chap. He generally happens to be in the right place at the most opportune moment. Charley is a true blue Democrat and will so that he can vote in November. Should he fail to attend to this important duty his Republican friend, Leander, might have a whole lot of fun at his expense!

We are often considered a little harsh in our theatrical criticisms, and frequently these can scarcely be looked upon in the light of compliments. However, it is our pleasure to add this testimonial to those the "My Wife's Family" company received elsewhere. The play is a musical farce with nothing serious to it whatever. Indeed, there is no time for anything but laughter, and the fun is continuous from the rise until the last drop of the curtain. There was not a dull moment during Saturday evening's performance, and the humor was of a high-class sort, too. Every member of the company was good, but Hal Stephens and Harry Linton are "birds." Their automobile specialty was a novelty and quite "rich." Much good singing and the costumes were fine.

Miss Carrie Morford of Covington, who has been in failing health for some months, last week underwent a delicate surgical operation at Seton's Hospital, Cincinnati. She stood the operation splendidly, and the doctors say that if nothing happens she will be completely restored to her usual state of health. Miss Morford formerly lived here and has many relatives and friends in Maysville who will be glad to know that she is doing so well.

Mr. John Herbert of Aberdeen has been sent to asylum at Dayton, O.

Painless extraction of teeth at Dr. Cartmell's.

Fresh and specially attractive line of candies at Hainline's.

Born, Thursday, to Mr. and Mrs. George Dillman, Fifth ward, a daughter.

The Barlow & Willson advertising car was here Sunday and left over the L. and N. this morning.

Bill Banks, while on a "bear" Saturday struck his wife with an ax and broke her arm. Officer Ryan nailed Willie.

William Kidder of this city and Miss Maggie Hafer of Manchester were married the other day at West Union.

Mr. George W. Oldham has sold his printing office material to the people who are to start the new paper at Germantown.

Miss Sallie Whitaker has accepted the position at the State National Bank made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Garfield Walsh.

On account of the race meeting at Lexington, the L. and N. will sell round-trip tickets October 2 to 14 inclusive at $2.31. Limit October 16.

Mrs. S. B. Chunn was called to Point Pleasant Sunday on account of the illness of her husband who is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Miss Florence Pope, aged fourteen, of Santa Fe, Bracken County, while returning from Milford, says she was attacked by Homer Hargett, who attempted to assault her.

Charles Hughes of the Springdale neighborhood lost his residence by fire Friday about noon. The origin of the blaze is not known. Mr. Hughes carried $250 insurance in the Farmers' Mutual Aid Association of this county.

Thursday night at the Democratic club rooms at Ashland, Congressman Kehoe delivered a campaign speech—the first of the year in that city—to a large crowd. The rooms were filled to overflowing with enthusiastic admirers of Mr. Kehoe, his speech was well received and he was given a veritable ovation.

SOMETHING DOING

On Market Street Last Night When a Colored Crap Shooter Began to Pump Lead Into His Dusky Enemy.

Frank Coleman, a dusky dude hailing from Lexington, who has been a hanger-on about town for the past month, sustained by pleasant memories of the last square meal he enjoyed before being "fired" from the stewardship of a dust-pan and broom at Congressman Kehoe's, got hold of two bits somehow yesterday and in company of several other darkies sought the solitude of the sand-bar on the other side, where the knights of the "bones" proceeded to transact business on a small scale.

It is not on record just how fortune favored Frank in the earlier stages of the game, but the trouble dates from the moment when Walter Lewis, who has killed his man, twirled the ivories and raked in four-fifths of the Bluegrass darkie's bank roll.

The party separated in bad humor, some coming back to the city in a skiff, others taking the ferry.

Last night Coleman was standing in front of the colored restaurant on Market when he spied the ebony sport who carried the twenty cents in his clothes. Straightway he pulled a gun and began firing at the coon's legs, three shots out of five taking effect. Coleman then ran, but landed in Officer Dryden's arms as he rounded Lovel's corner.

Lewis was taken to Dr. Reed's office and fixed up while the shootist was juggled to await trial before Judge Whitaker to-day.

TWO DEATHS SATURDAY.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Bramel of Near Lewisburg and Mrs. Rebecca Morrison of This City Pass Away.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Bramel widow of the late William Bramel, died Saturday at 10:30 o'clock p. m., at her home in the Lewisburg neighborhood. She was seventy-six years of age and death resulted from old age hastened by heart trouble.

Six children survive—Mrs. Laura King, Mrs. Carrie Bramel, Mrs. Alice Harrison, Mr. Selden W. Bramel, Mr. Wm. Bramel and Mr. Wood Bramel.

The funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, Elder Moss of the Christian Church officiating.

MRS. REBECCA MORRISON.

Mrs. Rebecca H. Morrison, widow of the late Rev. W. A. Morrison, died at 1:30 Saturday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. E. McKellup, of Limestone street, after a lingering illness of stomach trouble.

Deceased was sixty-nine years of age and was born at Manchester, being a daughter of the late Dr. William Herbert of that place. She is survived by four brothers and four sisters.

For many years she has been a member of the Christian Church and the funeral services were conducted by Elder W. W. Hall at the residence this morning at 11 o'clock, interment in Elizaville cemetery.

Mr. Pearce Browning left Sunday afternoon on a business trip for the Ohio Valley Pulley Works.

Policeman Ryan landed Thomas Maher Saturday, charged with a plain drunk, and he will be given a hearing to-day.

Mr. J. Foster Barbour is a member of the Committee on Credentials at the Kentucky bankers' meeting to be held next Wednesday and Thursday at the World's Fair.

Ethel Hord, colored, of Mayslick, was tried in 'Equire Grant's court this morning and given a fine of $25 and cost and ten days in jail for firing a pistol on the public highway.

Extensive improvements will soon be made in the building occupied by W. L. Traxel the confectioner. The floors will be lowered to street level, the front replaced by elegant plate-glass show-windows, partitions are to be removed and the side-walls extended.

Nancy Price and Tim Moran had a little bout Saturday evening on the southeast corner of Second and Market. Moran was about to be given the decision on "points" when a lucky drive from Nancy's right, sent Tim over the ropes and through the drugstore window. Time was called for drinks and Price asked for refreshments at Eitel's saloon. The pugilist being a little groggy, the bar-keeper refused, and in the scuffle, some more glass was smashed, before Policeman Dryden interfered.

Refrigerators,

Gasoline Stoves, Ice Cream Freezers and all summer goods must be sold. Call early and secure bargains in these lines.

Rich warm browns, besides greys and blacks, in scores of tasteful mixtures, are the fashionable tones for fall wear. The Rochester made Clothing that we have ready for your inspection show these colors to perfection. The latitude of model, carefulness of make and freshness of style are the most advanced of any that these smart tailors have produced. Shrewd critics of keen tailoring will tell you that Rochester made Clothes are equalled only by top notch custom tailors. Come in and look them over.

Judging from the number of Cravenette Coats we have already sold thus early in the season and the admiration they have received from all that have looked at them shows that we have got what swell dressers want.

Your summer shoes are wearing a little thin. You know what kind we sell. To those that do not know we say that we sell the best that are made.
